On the ball with the Manager

Spending in soccer's transfer market topped £16 million when the transfer deadline arrived last Thursday.

It was of course pushed back three weeks because the season had been held up—and I'm glad it was. I was one of the advocates of a delayed deadline and without it we would not have been able to land the Polish international striker Tadeusz Nowak.

I don't propose to name a fee because the Polish authorities don't like that sort of thing and the negotiations prior to the signing were long and delicate.

What was on our side was the fact that the player wanted to come to Bolton. He was with us for a spell last November, but could only join in our training sessions.

He impressed us very much and we decided to go ahead to try to sign him. But we didn't realise the number of miles that would be flown and the hours of talking that were to follow.

In the end it all came right and club secretary Des McBain flew to Poland last week to get the signature and complete details with the Polish F.A. and Nowak's club Legia of Warsaw.

Then it was a matter of rushing the forms to the Football League in Lytham and the Association in London, with the player following on once a few visa and passport problems had been cleared up.

He arrived in Bolton late on Friday and was a spectator at our 1-1 draw against Nottingham Forest at the City Ground on Saturday

Welcome to . . .

Though Everton still technically have a chance of winning the League Championship, in reality their hopes are very slim. Only in the unlikely event of an uncharacteristic collapse by their neighbours Liverpool, would Everton have much hope of finishing top now.

Yet, whatever happens in the end, this has been a magnificent season for the Toffees. They remained undefeated in their opening 19 League games and at the turn of the year they had a wonderful chance of landing the title.

Then they were hit by a series of injuries, manager Gordon Lee was forced to make several changes in what had, until then, been a settled side and during February they were beaten three times in four League games.

After that their chances of making it to the top were blunted and now they are aiming for a place in the UEFA Cup next season. They have been boosted by the two 'beat the deadline' signings Peter Eastoe from Q.P.R. and Brian Kidd from Manchester City.

The Toffees earned a place in Europe this season but they lasted only until the second round of the UEFA Cup. After an easy 10—0 aggregate victory over Finn Harps, of Ireland, Everton drew 2—2 on aggregate with Dukla Prague but lost on away goals.

Everton didn't get too far in any of their cup runs this season. They lost 1—2 in the third round of the F.A. Cup at Sunderland and survived to the fourth round of the League Cup. After crushing Wimbledon 8—0, with Bob Latchford equalling the competition record with five of the goals, they then had a close-fought 1—0 victory over Darlington at Goodison before going down 2—3 at home to the eventual winners Nottingham Forest.

In the League Everton have won five away games — at Chelsea (1—0), Ipswich (1—0), Norwich (1—0), Birmingham (3—1) and Middlesbrough (2—1). They drew at Manchester United (1—1), Aston Villa (1—1), Bristol City (2—2), Q.P.R. (1—1), Nottingham Forest (0—0), Arsenal (2—2), Liverpool (1—1) and Derby (0—0).

They were defeated at Coventry (2—3), Wolves (0—1) and Southampton (0—3).

Manager Gordon Lee made a couple of important signings last summer, securing the services of Republic of Ireland international striker Mick Walsh from Blackpool for £325,000 and Geoff Nulty, from Newcastle, for £50,000.

Soon after the start of this season he signed England defender Colin Todd from Derby for £300,000 and a few weeks ago he paid Sheffield United £80,000 for striker Imre Varadi, a young player of promise who has not yet played in the Toffees' first-team.

Everton were able to field a settled team for most of the first-half of the season but then they were hit by a series of injuries which forced Mr. Lee to try several experimental line-ups.

Fortunately, goalkeeper George Wood has steered clear of any injury trouble and he has been in goal all season. Colin Todd normally plays right-back but when Billy Wright or Mike Lyons has been unavailable he has often moved into his old position in the centre.

Middle Row

At full-strength the midfield line-up is Andy King, Martin Dobson and Trevor Ross and, since Walsh has been out of favour, the front three players have been George Telfer, Bob Latchford and Dave Thomas.

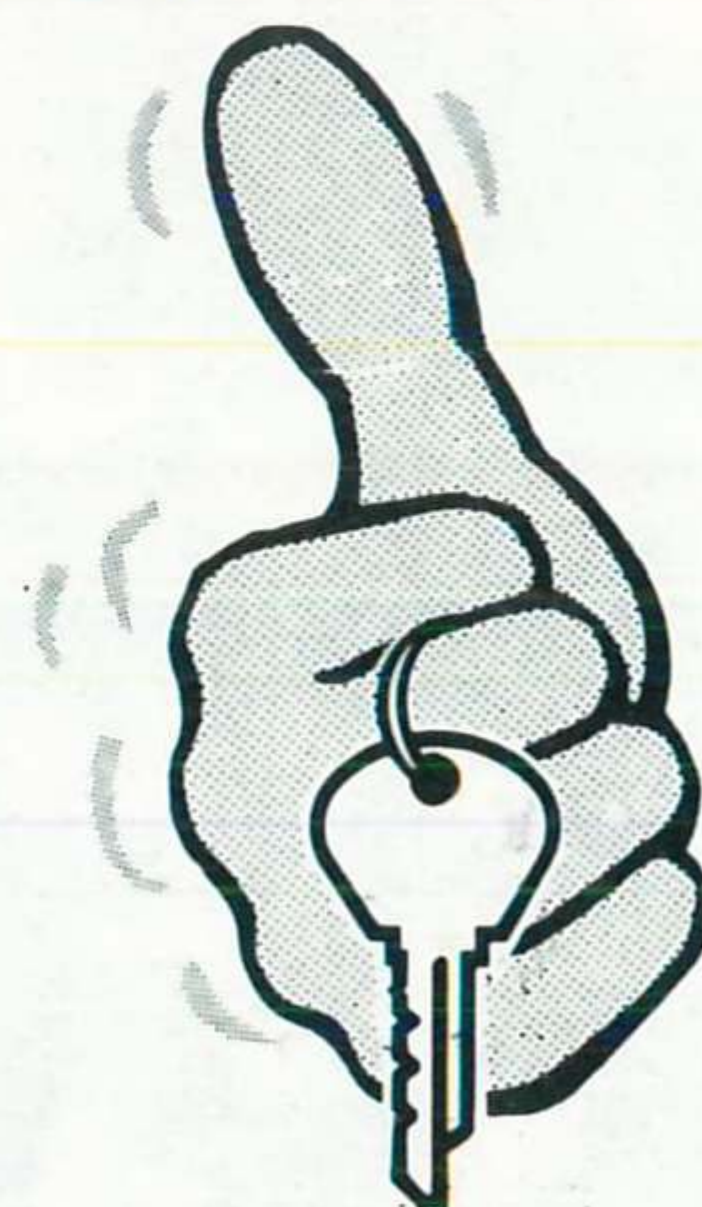

This is Everton's second visit to Burnden Park this season. When they came here on New Year's day they drew our largest attendance of the season (33,011) but that game had to be abandoned at half-time because of the icy pitch. The score stood at 1—1 with Frank Worthington scoring our goal and Trevor Ross getting the Toffees'.

Everton seem to have an excellent chance of taking one of the top three places in the table. They will be aiming to finish in runners-up position, if the Championship is beyond them, but West Bromwich, who are close behind them, have the advantage of games in hand.

Beat-the-deadline deals

Everton, one of soccer's biggest spenders were at the forefront of the action before last week's transfer deadline.

And the Wanderers also landed a signing with Tadeusz Nowack, the Polish international striker joining the club after a long drawn out chase for manager Ian Greaves and club secretary Des McBain.

The Merseyside club signed Peter Eastoe in a straight swap for Micky Wash in a deal with Queens Park Rangers, who are visitors to Burnden Park on Saturday.

And they also landed Brian Kidd from Manchester City for a fee believed to be around £150,000.

City soon used up part of the cash paying around £65,000 for Barry Silkman, the Plymouth winger whose originally planned move to Maine Road earlier this season was stopped because of medical problems.

Southampton sold Tony Sealey to Crystal Palace for £50,000 and also let Curran joined Sheffield Wednesday for a £100,000 fee to make a profit on a player who was bought from Derby County for £60,000 last August.

Bristol City turned their sights to Europe snapping up Ajax winger Gert Meijer for £95,000 and Finnish mid-field man Pertti Jantunen from Swedish Club Eskilstuna for around £55,000.

West Ham's Anton Otulakowski moved to Southend for £50,000 and Luton Town defender Chris Turner looks set to join American club New England Teamen for a £90,000 fee in a deal not affected by the transfer deadline.

But Hull City pair winger David Stewart and midfielder man Chris Galvin turned down moves to Scunthorpe United and Australian club Hellas respectively.

Alan Gowling turns away in triumph and Alan Ball (right) looks dejected as the Wanderers score their first goal in the 2-0 win over Southampton.

GEORGE WOOD (Goalkeeper). One of the safest 'keepers in the country, George is now in line for a Scottish cap. He began his career with East Stirling and joined Blackpool for a modest £7,000 in 1971. Everton had to pay £150,000 to secure his transfer in the 1977 close-season.

COLIN TODD (Defender). Colin arrived from Derby in a £300,000 deal earlier this season. Though he normally plays at right-back, he still occasionally appears in his old role as a central defender. Colin began with Sunderland, winning England youth and under-23 honours with them. Derby signed him in 1971 for £170,000 and it wasn't long before he earned the first of his 27 England caps.

IMRE VARADI (Forward). Though his father was Hungarian, Imre was born in Paddington and this time last year he was turning out for Letchworth Town in the Isthmian League. He was spotted by Sheffield United and blooded in their Second Division side this season. He impressed with several goals so Everton signed him as cover for £80,000 a few weeks back.

BILLY WRIGHT (Defender). Billy has the ideal name for a centre-back, of course, and though he only graduated to Everton's senior team last season he has already given an indication that he could follow in the footsteps of his famous namesake for this season he was introduced to the England under-21 eleven.

MIKE PEJIC (Defender). Mike is the son of a Polish miner and he could have qualified to play international matches for Poland. Instead, he chose England and, while with his first club Stoke City, he won four full and several under-23 caps. He was transferred to Everton for £135,000 in 1977.

TERRY DARRACOTT (Defender). Terry was the unfortunate one to make way for Colin Todd though he has made occasional subsequent appearances. An Everton player all his life, Terry came into the team in 1967/68.

TIM HEARD (Defender/Midfield). Tim served his apprenticeship with Everton and came through to make his First Division debut in February this year. He played initially in midfield but in recent weeks he has been filling the left-back spot.

GEOFF NULTY (Midfield). Geoff began his career with Burnley but he moved on to Newcastle for £120,000 in 1974. Everton signed him for £50,000 last summer.

MARTIN DOBSON (Midfield). Martin was once given a free transfer by Bolton before he had had the chance to play in their first team. Burnley signed him in 1967 and he was soon in their team. Before he left Turf Moor, to join Everton for £300,000 in 1974, TREVOR ROSS (Midfield). Trevor grew up with Arsenal and made 58 First Division appearances for the Gunners. Everton signed him for £150,000 last season and now he is the man who usually takes their penalties.

BOB LATCHFORD (Forward). Bob's goalscoring feats are now legendary. He has been Everton's top scorer in each of his four completed seasons since joining them from Birmingham for £350,000 in 1974 and last season he hit the 30-goal barrier in the First Division. This season he equalled a League Cup record by hitting five goals in one match.

BRIAN KIDD Experienced striker who became another beat the deadline signing when he joined Everton from Manchester City for a £150,000 fee. An England international, Manchester born Brian started his career with United.

DAVE THOMAS (Forward). Dave won eight England caps for his flying and skilful displays on the wing. These came after he had earned youth and under-23 caps in his Burnley days. He left Turf Moor in 1972 to join Q.P.R. for £160,000 and Everton signed him in 1977 for £200,000.

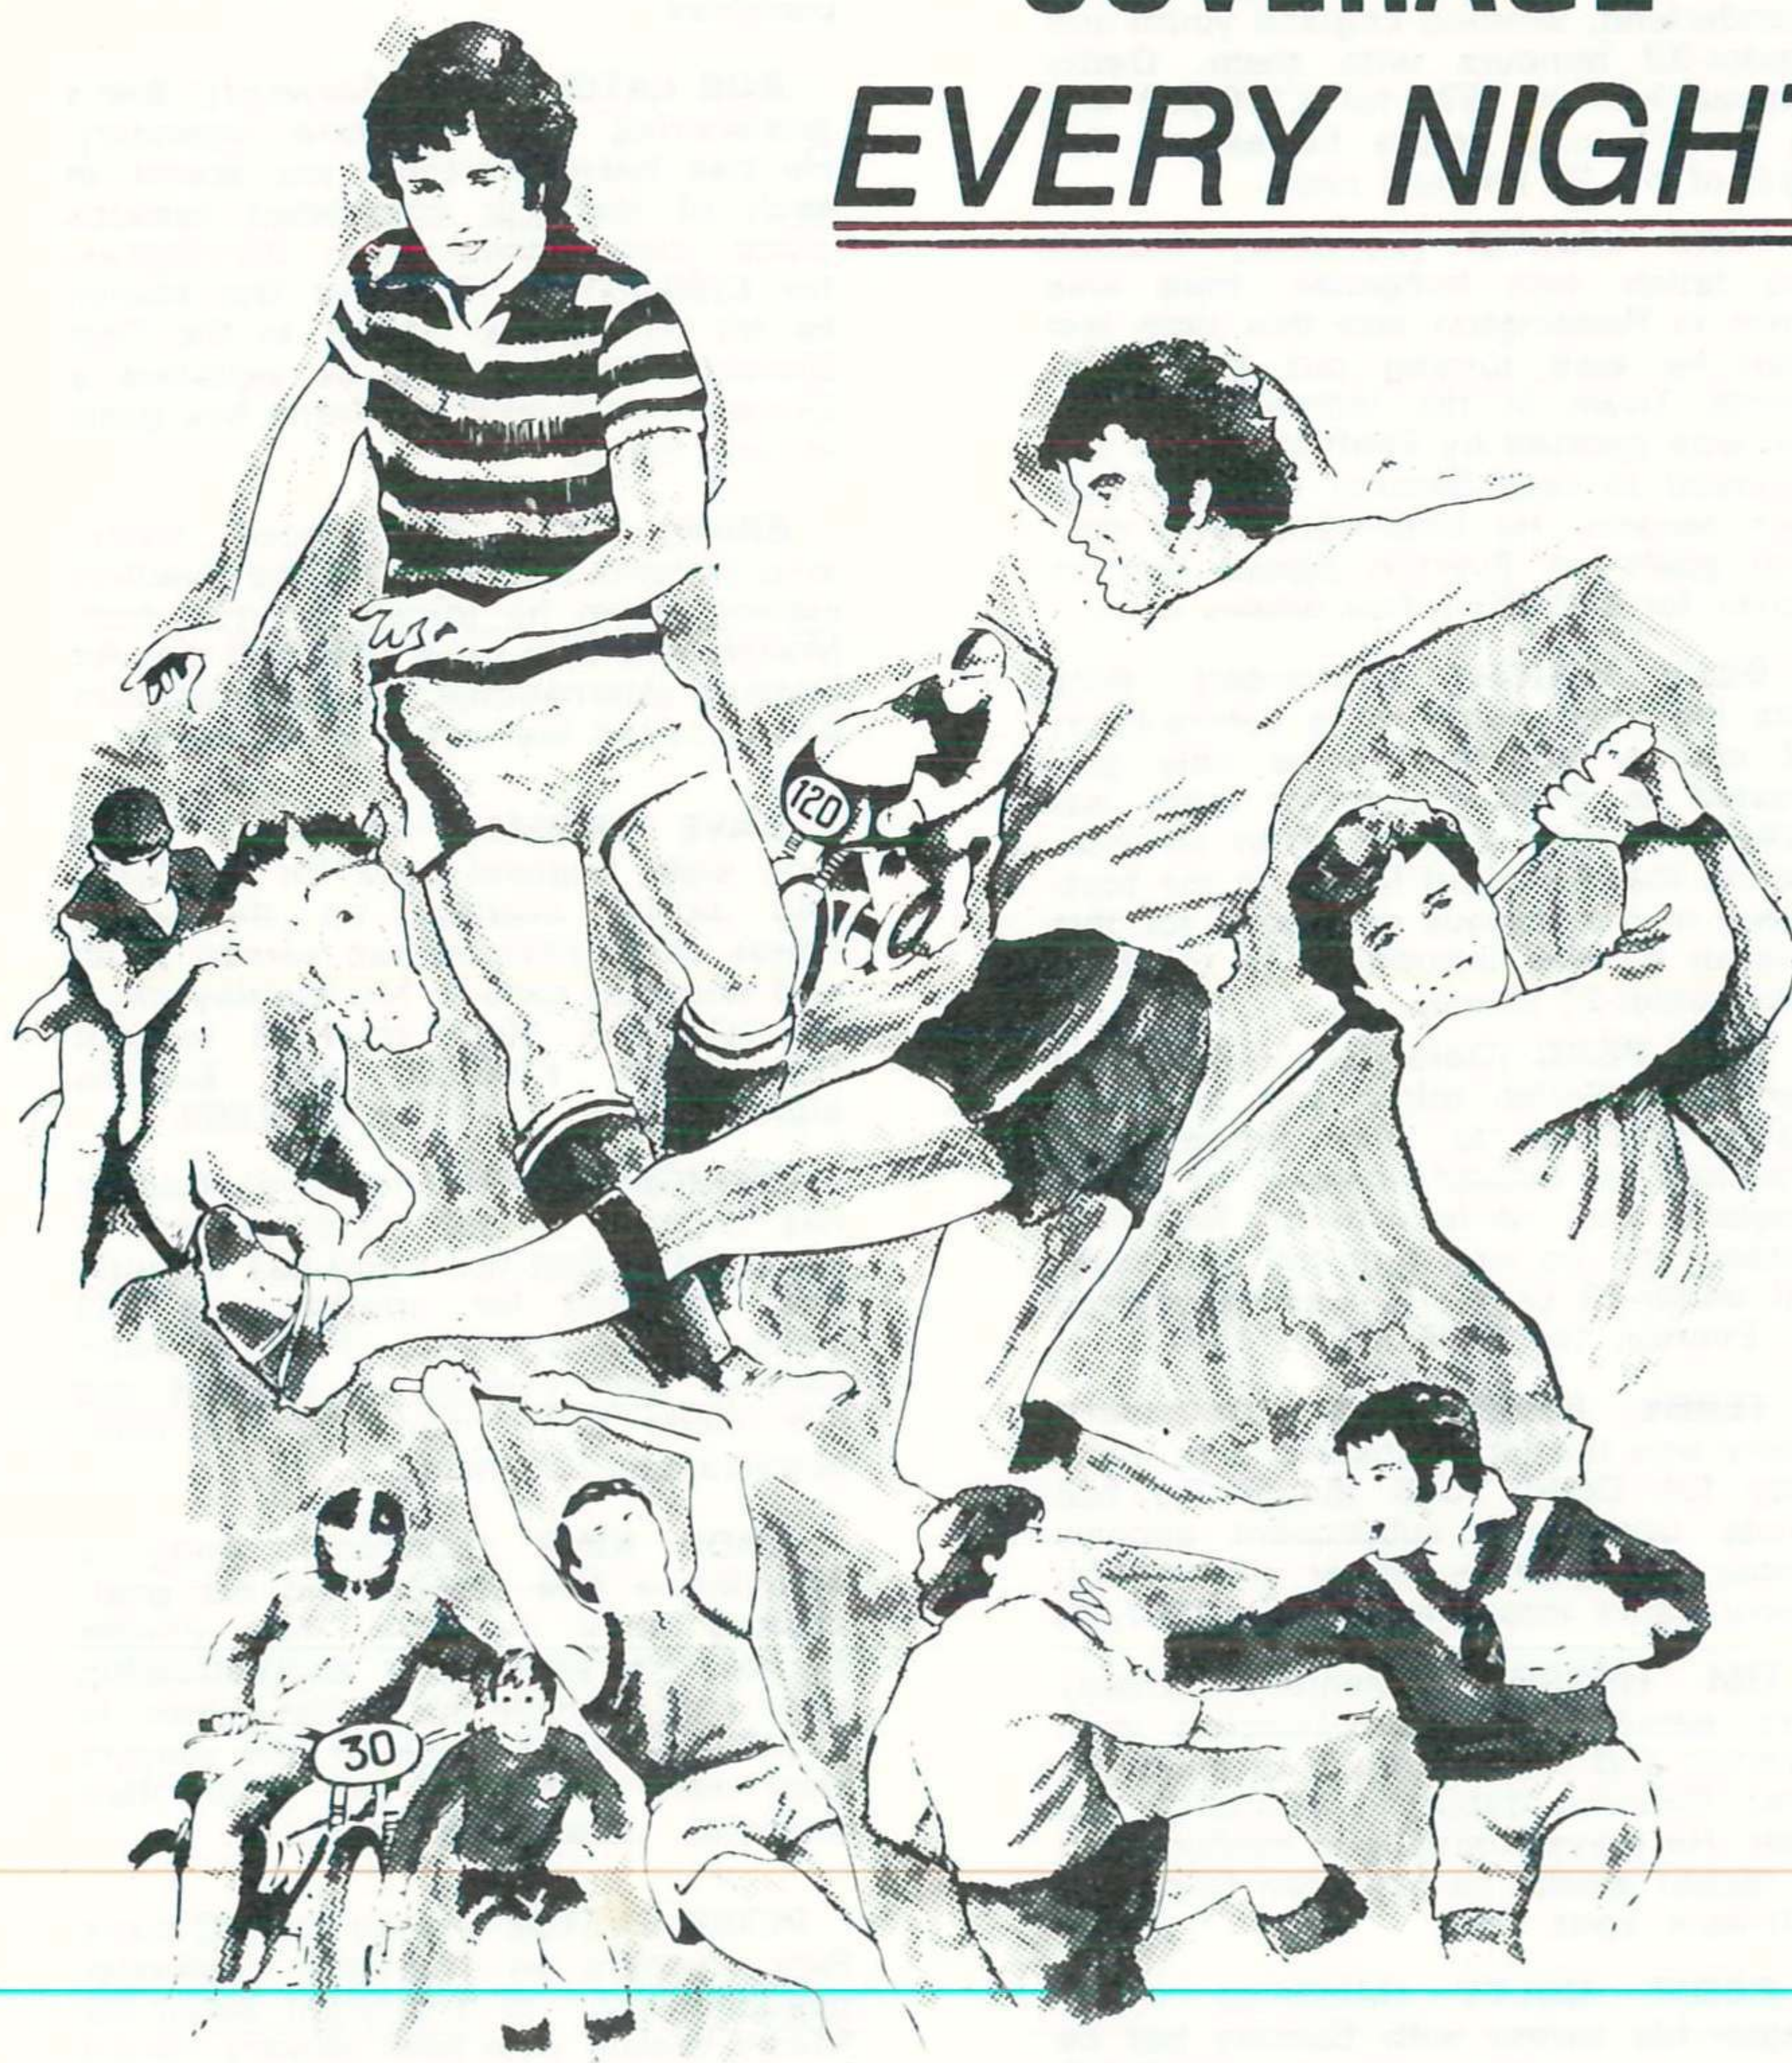

GEORGE TELFER (Forward). George has enjoyed several lengthy runs in the Everton first-team and has recently been recalled for another run. He made his entry into First Division football with Everton in 1973/74 and has made more than 100 first-team appearances for them.

ANDY KING (Midfield). Andy is enjoying a fine season and his goalscoring tally is now into double figures. He served his apprenticeship with Luton, made his League bow in 1974/75 and was one of the players they were forced to sell when their financial crisis hit them.

PETER EASTOE Signed from Queens Park Rangers on Thursday - transfer deadline day - in a straight swap for Micky Walsh, with both players valued around the £250,000 mark. Peter is a striker formerly with Wolves and Swindon.

Wanderers Promotions

Can you help?

Over the past few months the players have maintained their involvement with promotional activities off the field and many 'Wanderers' fans have had the opportunity to meet their 'favourites' in a different sphere. Injured midfield star Peter Reid has involved himself with promoting our 'Three of a kind' lottery and several of the players have been responsible for 'drawing out' our £1,000 winners. Our promotional 'superwhite nights' have been well supported by players and fans alike and proved an outstanding success, once again.

With the worst of the season's weather hopefully over and the bonus of two successive victories against Southampton and Arsenal and the draw at Nottingham Forest it is incredible to note that there is little more than a month of the current campaign left. Including tonight's fixture we have seven home fixtures, four away and it is hoped with a fair run of the ball we may climb a few places in the league table.

It is important in this next month to lay the foundation for our summer sales and it is with this in mind that we ask you, the supporter to help a little more—as an agent. Why not start now, use the summer months to build up your sales to qualify for next seasons agents concessions. It only takes a little of your time each week and tickets can be sold where you work, to your neighbours and friends, in fact anywhere you are in company! All we require is your interest. Full details are always available from the Promotions Office, Bolton 24518—or better still call in the office after the game this evening when our staff will discuss any scheme with you.

Today's match and ball sponsors . . .

On behalf of everyone at Bolton Wanderers Football Club we would express our appreciation to 'EUROWAY CAR CENTRE', today's Match sponsor and BOLTON EVENING NEWS St. Regis Group, today's MITRE Match Ball sponsor.
